Why This Trip with BACKPACKER TOURS?

A 9-day Mumbai to Mumbai group trip by train and private vehicle: the Golden Temple and Wagah Border in Amritsar, Manali with Solang Valley and the Atal Tunnel, a riverside camp in Kasol, then Manikaran and river rafting in Kullu. Delhi joiners can take the 7-day version.

What Makes This Trip Special?

- The Golden Temple at night and in the morning, plus Jallianwala Bagh and the Partition Museum.
- The Wagah Border flag-down ceremony and Amritsari kulcha and lassi.
- A DJ night in Manali, Old Manali's live music and Mall Road.
- Hadimba Temple, Solang Valley, Vashisht hot springs and the Atal Tunnel.
- Sissu village in Lahaul Valley, if the roads are open.
- A riverside camp in Kasol and the Manikaran Gurudwara langar by a hot spring.
- River rafting and paragliding at Kullu.

About the Trip

A journey through Northern India that blends culture, adventure and natural beauty. Start in Amritsar with the Golden Temple, Jallianwala Bagh, the Partition Museum and the Wagah Border flag-down ceremony, then head to Manali for Hadimba Temple, Solang Valley, the Atal Tunnel and a DJ night. Camp by the Parvati River in Kasol, enjoy the langar by the hot spring at Manikaran, and finish with river rafting and paragliding in Kullu. Travel from Mumbai by train, or join from Delhi for the 7-day version.

Our Story

We started as three friends who kept getting asked to plan everyone else's Himalaya trips. Nine years on, it's a full-time team of captains, drivers and a support desk that actually picks up — still doing exactly what we started with. No white-labelled itineraries and no routes we haven't driven ourselves. If a batch runs under the Backpacker Tours name, someone on our team has led it before.
