About the Trip

We are going to Himachal Pradesh this summer with like-minded travellers. If you love a bonfire, walking into the woods or live music at a local club in Old Manali, this trip is for you. It is not only about exploration but also a short break from work life, a chance to enjoy the moment in the mountains and make new friends. You do not need a group of friends, and solo travellers are most welcome.

This is not a regular sightseeing trip. It is an offbeat experience through Manali, Kullu, Sissu, Kasol, Kalga, Jibhi and Jalori Pass, planned to be less crowded and to leave enough time for both exploring and relaxing. The trip starts and ends in Delhi. You can also join from Mumbai or another city by AC train, and we suggest you arrive at least 30 minutes before departure and meet us at the pickup point shared on our WhatsApp group.

Our Story

We started as three friends who kept getting asked to plan everyone else's Himalaya trips. Nine years on, it's a full-time team of captains, drivers and a support desk that actually picks up — still doing exactly what we started with. No white-labelled itineraries and no routes we haven't driven ourselves. If a batch runs under the Backpacker Tours name, someone on our team has led it before.
