Why This Trip with BACKPACKER TOURS?

Leh Ladakh with Backpacker Tours: a well-paced route through Nubra Valley, Pangong Lake, Hanle and Umling La, the highest motorable road in the world. Designed for proper acclimatisation, with small groups and experienced leaders.

What Makes This Trip Special?

- Cross Khardung La (5,359 m) and visit Diskit Monastery and the Hunder sand dunes with a Bactrian camel ride.
- Visit Turtuk, India's last village, with its apricot orchards and Balti culture.
- Stay at Pangong Lake (4,225 m) and enjoy a bonfire, weather permitting.
- Stargaze at Hanle, near the Indian Astronomical Observatory, away from city lights.
- Reach Umling La (19,024 ft), officially the highest motorable road in the world.

About the Trip

We start from Manali and cross Baralacha La and Tanglang La to Leh, rather than flying in, so the body adjusts to altitude gradually. Along the way you will see Turtuk, India's last village, the Hanle night sky at the Indian Astronomical Observatory, and the Umling La pass.

Snowy Roads Happier Stories

Moments from LADAKH

Breathtaking landscapes, charming villages, new friendships and unforgettable experiences — a journey captured in moments.

Our Story

We started as three friends who kept getting asked to plan everyone else's Himalaya trips. Nine years on, it's a full-time team of captains, drivers and a support desk that actually picks up — still doing exactly what we started with. No white-labelled itineraries and no routes we haven't driven ourselves. If a batch runs under the Backpacker Tours name, someone on our team has led it before.
