Our Story

We started as three friends who kept getting asked to plan everyone else's Himalaya trips. Nine years on, it's a full-time team of captains, drivers and a support desk that actually picks up — still doing exactly what we started with. No white-labelled itineraries and no routes we haven't driven ourselves. If a batch runs under the Backpacker Tours name, someone on our team has led it before.

Travel duration
Mumbai to Udaipur is about 750 km by road. Arrival and departure times may vary with traffic, road and weather conditions. The exact departure time is shared on the morning of your journey.

Peak season
On long weekends and festival days some delays may happen. Bus fares are dynamic and rise in peak season (long weekends, Diwali, Christmas and New Year).

Bus
AC sleeper buses (seat in coach basis), such as Tata, Eicher, Bharat Benz or similar. Schedules, rest stops, route and timings are managed by the bus operator, not by Backpacker Tours.

Hotel rooms are twin, triple or four sharing (1 double bed + 1 extra mattress).

Dinner
We try to give an authentic Dal Baati experience at our partner restaurant. There may be a 20 to 30 minute wait in peak season.

Entry fees for monuments and gardens are paid directly by clients, roughly INR 1,000 to 1,500 per person.

Sajjangarh Monsoon Palace
autos are not allowed beyond a certain point. Sharing cabs arranged by local authorities must be taken at your own cost.
