About the Trip

Winter in Spiti is raw, magical and unlike anywhere else. Wake up in cosy homestays run by local families, share stories with new friends from different states, and explore snow-filled valleys together. From the white landscapes of Kaza and Chitkul to the quiet charm of Sangla, every stop feels special. This is a community journey in the heart of the Himalayas.

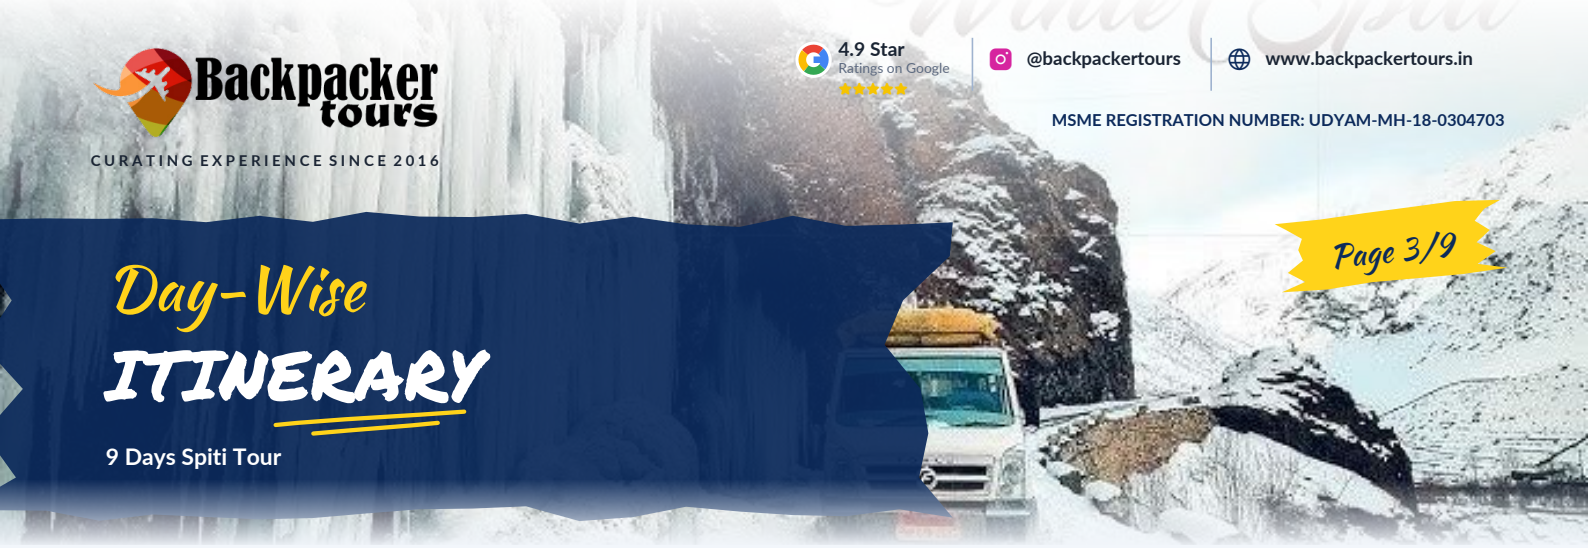

You discover hidden gems like Chitkul and the Gue Monastery, drive through remote villages, cold deserts and frozen waterfalls, and meet locals to see traditional Spiti life. The itinerary includes an extra full day in Kaza for acclimatisation, and the group is led by experienced trip leaders, with mostly corporate travellers aged 15 to 40 for a friendly atmosphere. If you are joining from Maharashtra or Gujarat, the trip is 11 days with train pickups.

Our Story

We started as three friends who kept getting asked to plan everyone else's Himalaya trips. Nine years on, it's a full-time team of captains, drivers and a support desk that actually picks up — still doing exactly what we started with. No white-labelled itineraries and no routes we haven't driven ourselves. If a batch runs under the Backpacker Tours name, someone on our team has led it before.

IMPORTANT NOTES

Before you join us

Stay
all accommodation is in homestays run by local families, for an authentic Himachali lifestyle experience.

Meals
only vegetarian meals are served. In Spiti, meat is usually frozen in winter, so vegetarian food is the most suitable.

ID proof
a valid government ID (digital copy) is required for check-in at every homestay.

Water
Spiti is one of the coldest regions of Himachal. Water supply in Tabo and Kaza is limited, as most water bodies freeze in winter.

Heating
the homestays in Tabo and Kaza have built-in chimneys or heaters to keep the rooms warm.

Washrooms in Tabo and Kaza are not attached to the rooms, because in winter the water freezes and the pipes get jammed.

This is a winter adventure trip, not a luxury holiday. It suits those who want cultural immersion, a local experience and less crowded valleys.

Train pickups are available from Mumbai, Pune, Ahmedabad, Surat, Indore, Bhopal, Lucknow and Vadodara (11 days from Maharashtra and Gujarat).

Train travellers from Maharashtra and Gujarat should confirm their seats at least 2 months before departure so confirmed train travel can be arranged.

Booking
block your seat by paying INR 8,000, with the balance payable 20 days before departure.

All explorations depend on road and weather conditions, so flexibility is required.

In case of heavy snowfall, some visits may need a 4x4 vehicle at additional cost, if necessary.

As we travel in high-altitude regions, please carry all necessary personal medicines.

New Year and Christmas rates are different from the price mentioned.

Customised dates are available for groups.
